In the middle of the first triple-header of the season between Barcelona and Silverstone, the big show of motorsport's premier class will be staged at the Red Bull Ring from Thursday. Fans can look forward to additional racing highlights and a fantastic supporting program on the sprint weekend. If you are smart about how to get there, you have all the trump cards for a perfect F1 experience. All information about this, the side events and the last tickets are available at www.redbullring.com – or from Thursday, 12:00 noon, at the box offices.

The "Holiday Grand Prix 2024" can begin. From Friday to Sunday, bands such as the Aufgeiger or the Pagger Buam in the Steiermark Village and live acts in the F1 Fan Zone such as Yarden Saxophone, Fedde Le Grand, Fast Boy, MORTEN and Toby Romeo will be providing the atmosphere. Selfie hunters will get their money's worth at the "Meet the Drivers" on Friday and Saturday. The big chance to get autographs and an up-close look at the stars of Formula 1 is on Sunday morning at the Styrian Green Carpet in front of the Welcome Center of the Red Bull Ring. Back to the race track: the Legends Parade entitled "Austrian GP Winners" on Saturday and Sunday with F1 idols and legendary cars from motorsport history guarantees emotional moments on one of the world's most modern race tracks, in the midst of the fantastic mountain scenery in the heart of Styria.

Fans are well equipped with a ticket for "Super Saturday". Anyone who can't get a ticket for race Sunday will also have the chance to watch exciting duels for championship points on "Super Saturday". On June 29, Max Verstappen & Co. will first fight for victory in the sprint and then in qualifying for the starting grid for the 2024 Austrian GP. In between, ARAS will be in action at the Red Bull Ring with its motorcycle freestyle show - on Sunday also in the F1 Fan Zone. Although the Flying Bulls traditionally only make their grand entrance on Sunday shortly before the start of the race, aerobatic pilot Dario Costa will be cruising through the air with his Edge machine on Saturday. The online ticket pre-sale ends on Friday, June 28, at 12:00 noon. The last chance to buy tickets will be from Thursday, 12:00 noon at the box offices.
